CENTRALIAN

published by the senior class
of
sargent central high

To you, our parents, the seniors dedicate this edition of the CENTRALIAN. This is much too meager to compensate for your loving concern,---and we'll always cherish it,---your willing sacrifices, and your giving us a sense of responsibility, which we'll continue to accept as our legacy. We heartily endorse Myrtle and Charles Webb's idea in Our Town: "We think it's a good idea to throw the young people into tne sea and let'm sink or swim as soon as they're ready." You've nutured us, and when we're ready, we'll swim. THANK YOU!

Say, I know my rights! Doggone it! You do your own "gratefulizing."

Pst! Gudsikes, I'm scared to stand out here and say all that! You do it, by gosh!

By gum, if you think I'm going to stand right here and tell all the Brampton people how sorry you guys are that the aerial picture of their town won't be in the liner, or if you think I'm going to thank all the faculty, especially Mr. Houghton, your advisor, for all his help, and Miss Dyste for her office, or LeRoy Martin for all his patience, or Scherlings for all the photos, or all the advertisers without whose support there would be no '62 CENTRALIAN, or all the swell folks who bought an annual ...

You're right!
